New York, Oct. 11.-New Yorkers are dead sore tonight as a result of the loss of the world's a result of the loss of the words series to the Athletics, and mem-bers of the sporting fraternity who bet heavily on the Giants are sturned at the complete upset of all the dope.

No series for a world's title in recent years has been made the medium of the heavy betting recorded on the present blue ribbon event. For some unaccountable reason, nine out of every ten fans in New York not only figured the Giants o win, but bet good money on hem. Several thousand Philadelphia sports breezed into Gotham huring the first part of the week and covered all the New York money in sight, asking no odds money in sight, as

It would be impossible to state in dollars and cents the exact amount of money taken out of York, but it amounts up into the thousands.

BROOKLANDERS DROP OPENER

Catholic University Loses to Rock Hill College in 13 to 0 Game.

SHOW POOR CONDITION

Lack of Team Play Injures Chances in Hard-Fought Contest with Lighter Eleven.

Calholic University inauguraled its football season resterday by going down to defeat before the fast little Rock Hill College eleven in a 15-fold game. Capt. STILL LEAGUE CHAMPS Staley's Ellicion City team was optively great by the Brooklanders bin pointed to the mant, but offest this handleap by fast offensive plays and sterling defense. Catholic Crityersity clearly showed the lack of condition and feam play, but considering the fact that Couch Green has had the Red and Black eleven out but had the Red and Black eleven out but had the Red and Black eleven out but and week the Brooklanders put up a good article of ball, and are sure to be heard from in the pear future.

Philadelphia. Oct. 11.—Eddle Plank, who pitched the greatest basebuil of his career when he won from the Glauth today, never will pitch smother game of professional bail, seconding to his own admission. If Plank had not won today he probably would pince his signature to an Athletic contract next season, but today's events allow him to bring his basebuil career to an end in a biase of glory.

Chief Meyers Says Connie Mack's Machine Is a Wonder.

My heart wo of the best games with the pitched two of the one of thom. Somehow the and wasted one of thom. Somehow the did marter. I do not wish to reflect on the stahility of Eddle Plank. He surprised me. They told me he rouldn't come bark no quickly, but he pitched every bit as well as on his start on Wednesday. His cross fire was a thing of beauty. He held the Glants to two nits and in seven of the nine imings no one of our batters reached first bisse. But Maity was every bit as efficient and the surprise of the start of the star rival There was not a run sarned on the sither side and a unfortunately New York was guilty of every bit of the "Ivory" stuff.

George Burnis' ill-judged throw into this to this boy's inexperience. I have said and still maintain that such men cannot be depended upon in tight places. But there was no excuse for Merkle's bad play on Baker's bounder. Had he played Baker's grounder to the plate Murphy could have been trapped for the second out.

Throughout this series the Athletica I have shown wonderful consistency, both offensively and defensively. They have hit our pitchers as hard and timely as any team that ever faced them. But still we would have taken the long end of the money if we played the game the dway we played it throughout the Na-stional League campaign. Three of the prour games we lost were simply thrown away.

I wish to say for Connie Mack that he Laurel, Md., Oct. 11,—Donald McDonald, J. L. Holland's veteran stake horse, galloped home in front in the Anne Arundel selling stakes today at Laurel Park, winning from a good field through the clever riding of little Johnny Mc-Taggart. Elwah jumped into the lead at the start, with Donald Mc-Donald in the rut. Rounding the turn, the Holland entry came with rush, and, with McTaggart urging him, breezed by the field and swept past the judges' stand a winner. The pace proved too fast swept past the Judges stand a winner. The pace proved too fast for Elwah, and Blackford and Barnegat, of the Watkins stable, ran in the money. "Old Don" was boosted $1,300 over his entered price, but was retained by Owner Holland.

The feature race furnished another sensation. Jockey Neander, up on Cadeau, had a narrow escape from serious injury. Cadeau swerved into Barnegat coming into
